Supporting Food Access
Across 11 Nations

◆ Drive 4 Food Security

Dear Corporate Partner,

IMAGINE a morning where every child in our community wakes up to a nutritious breakfast, ready to tackle the day with energy and focus. That's the VISION driving FHQ Developments and our upcoming Drive 4 Food Security Golf Tournament on Monday, August 19, 2024, at the Wascana Country Club.

This year, we're rallying support to fund breakfast programs that promote food sovereignty within the 11 Nations of the File Hill Qu'Appelle Tribal Council. Your participation isn't just about golf—it's about making a difference in the lives of Indigenous communities.

At FHQ Developments, we believe in the power of unity.

By coming together, we can address food access, health, and education needs collectively, strengthening our communities and fostering a sense of togetherness and support. These breakfast programs aren't just about meals; they're about showcasing the strength that comes from unified action.

Let's drive towards a brighter, more secure future for Indigenous youth.

◆ Featured Guests

KEYNOTE SPEAKER – TED NOLAN

We are privileged to introduce Ted Nolan as our esteemed keynote speaker for the upcoming Strength in Unity Golf Tournament. Ted Nolan’s journey from his roots in the Garden River First nations to his distinguished career as a renowned hockey coach is nothing short of inspirational. However, it is his unwavering commitment to Indigenous empowerment and advocacy that truly sets him apart. With a deep understanding of the challenges facing Indigenous communities, Ted’s presence at our event adds immense value. His passion for creating opportunities for Indigenous youth aligns seamlessly with our mission, making him an ideal speaker to inspire and galvanize support for our cause. Ted Nolan’s wisdom and dedication will undoubtedly resonate with our participants, driving us to further our efforts in making a tangible difference in the lives of Indigenous youth through vital breakfast programs.

TRIBAL CHIEF – JEREMY FOURHORNS

Jeremy, a lifelong resident of Piapot, attended Qu’Appelle Indian Residential School before earning a degree from the University of Regina in 2005. With a career spanning positions in the Saskatchewan Provincial government and SaskGaming Corp, Jeremy has been dedicated to community and economic development. Serving on the Piapot governing council since 2008, he advocates tirelessly for his community. Jeremy’s commitment extends to supporting initiatives like our golf tournament, reflecting his dedication to advancing the interests of Treaty 4 Nations. With his continued leadership, we’re poised to create lasting positive change for all Treaty 4 Nations and their members.

SPECIAL GUEST – JOHN CHABOT

John Chabot is an Anishinabeg Algonquin from Kitigan Zibi First Nation and a former professional athlete and coach with 22 years experience including 12 in the NHL. On retiring he found a new passion working with indigenous youth across the country. Since 2001 he has travelled to communities from coast to coast to coast. Using hockey as a segue he was able to create relationships based on trust and respect. The hockey clinics he was teaching turned into hockey/education conversations which led to the formation of First Assist. He has also helped organize the NHL Indigenous Alumni team and been part of TV hockey shows such as Hit the Ice highlighting Indigenous youth.
